

Improvement of Energy Efficiency (IEE) of the Water Authority of Jordan

Background

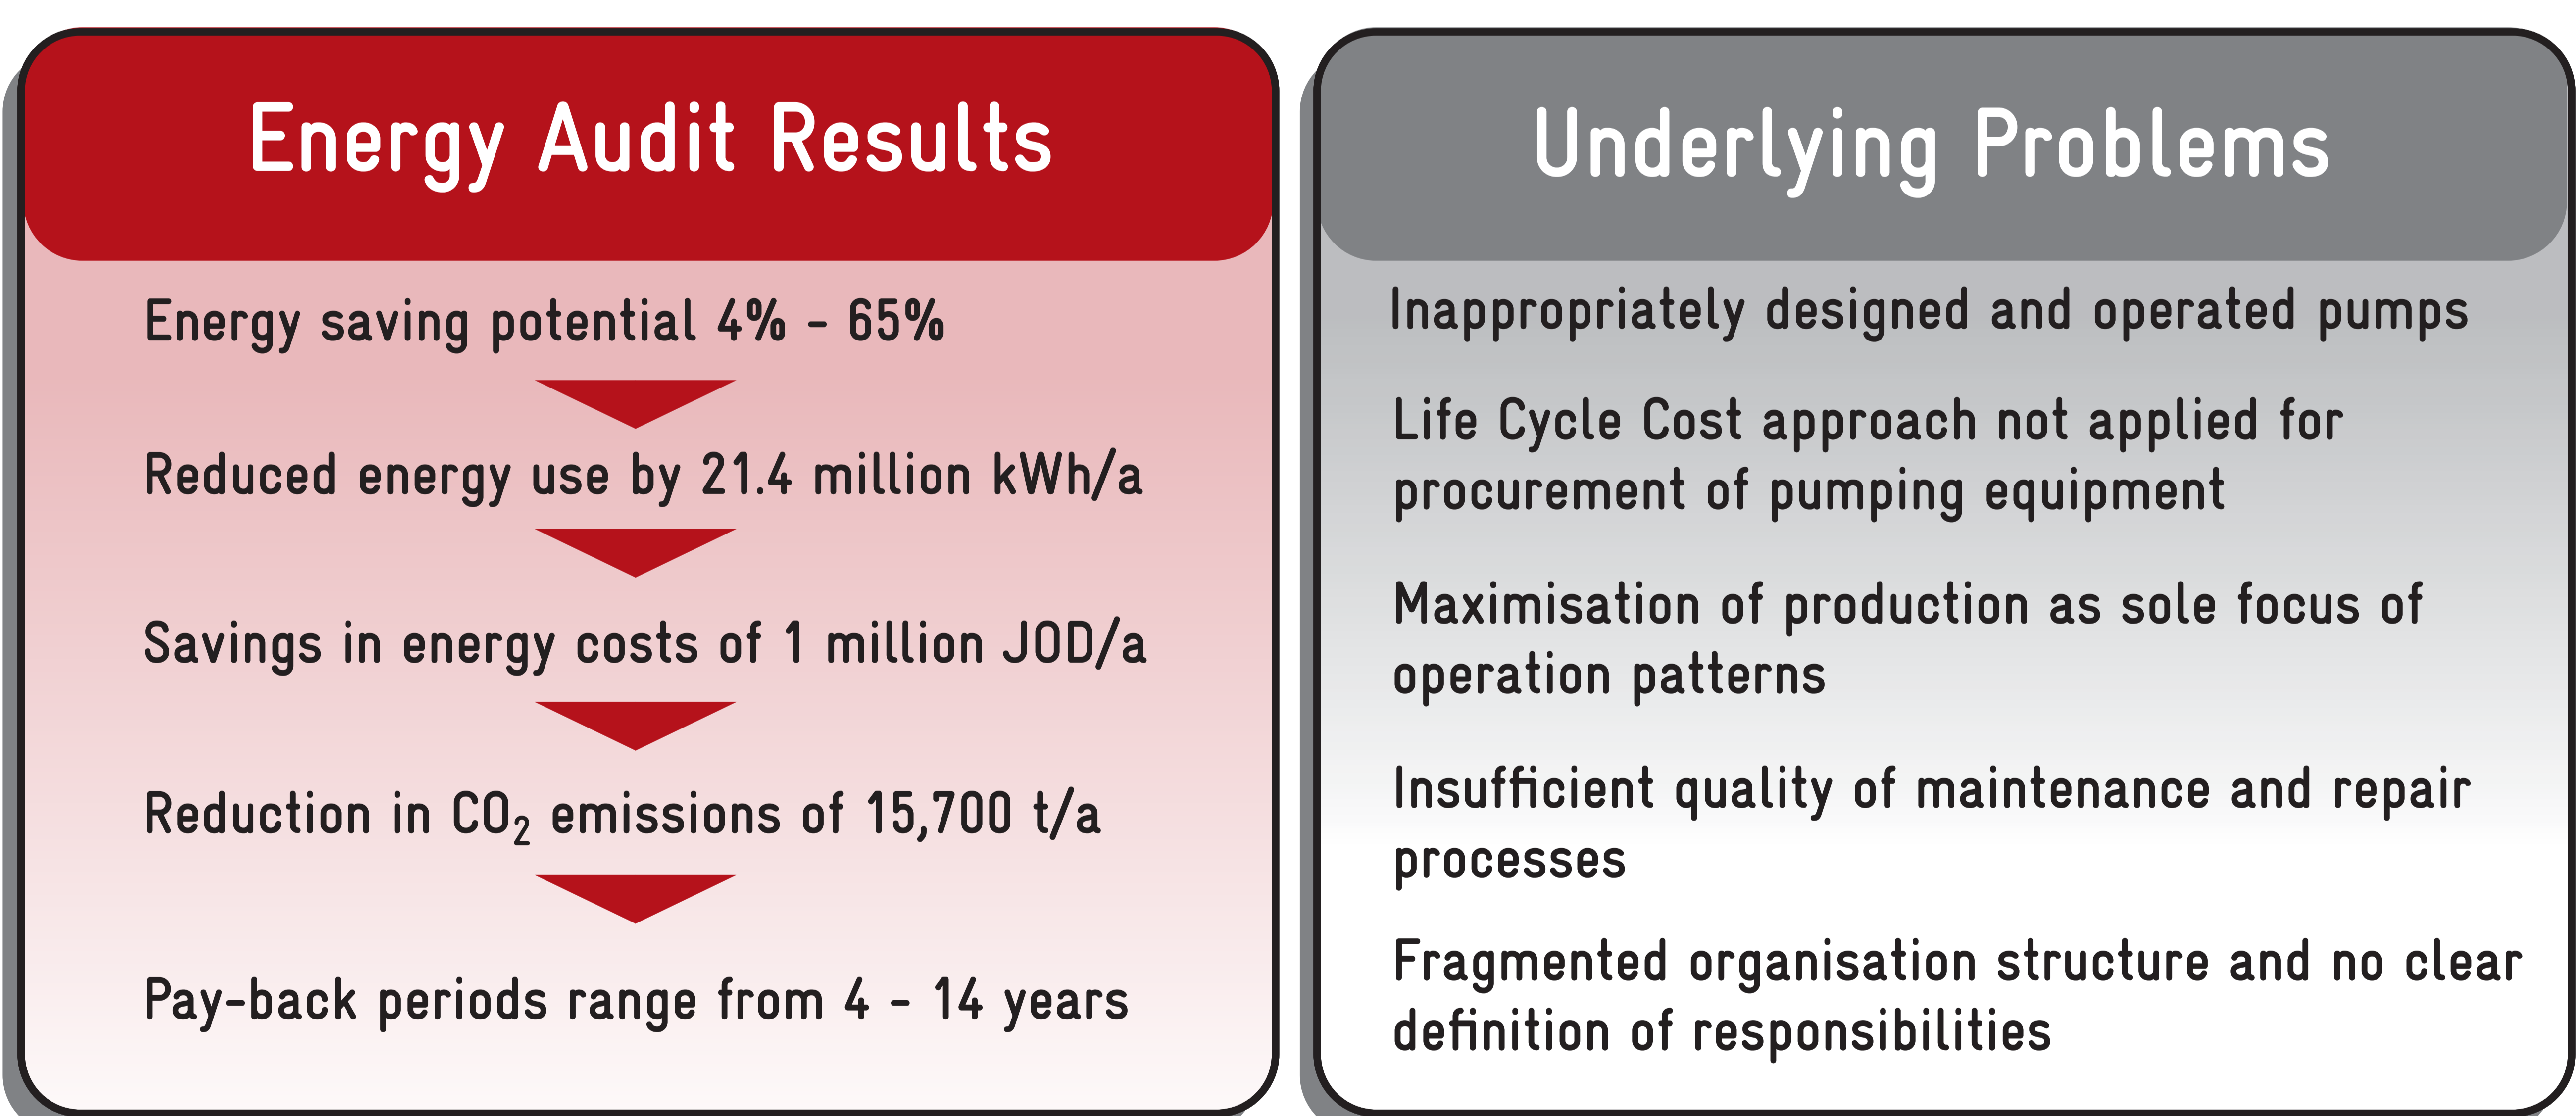

The Water Authority of Jordan (WAJ) is the country's largest electricity consumer resulting in huge costs for WAJ and also substantial carbon emissions

Objective

Reduce energy costs and support climate change mitigation efforts through outsourcing of pumping station operations

Results of the Energy Audit

Energy Performance Contracting